One organised shopping list

This list covers the seven main dishes and simple accompaniments for four people. Check your cupboards first - many spices repeat across the week.

Fresh produce

- 9 large/medium onions
- 2 bulbs garlic (about 21 cloves)
- 1 large piece fresh ginger
- 11 medium tomatoes
- 1 x 400 g tin chopped tomatoes
- 200 ml tomato puree
- 200 g spinach
- 2 medium aubergines
- 3 medium potatoes
- 200 g mushrooms
- 1 cup mixed vegetables
- 3-4 green chillies and 1 red chilli
- 2 lemons
- 2 bunches fresh coriander

Rice and breads

- Basmati rice - about 1 kg for the week
- Roti, chapati or naan as preferred

Protein and tins

- 4 x 400 g tins chickpeas
- 4 x 400 g tins butter beans, drained
- 200 g firm tofu
- 1 cup red lentils
- 1 x 400 ml tin coconut milk
- 100 ml oat cream (optional)
- 30 g cashews

Spices and pantry

- Neutral or vegetable oil
- Vegetable stock - 1 litre
- Cumin seeds and ground cumin
- Ground coriander
- Turmeric
- Garam masala
- Chilli powder or cayenne
- Paprika and black pepper
- Mustard seeds
- Dried fenugreek leaves
- Bay leaf, cinnamon, cloves and green cardamom
- Salt
- Optional: coconut sugar and vegan yoghurt

A note on quantities: produce sizes and preferred accompaniments vary. The list deliberately allows a little flexibility; scale rice and breads to your household.

A little preparation goes a long way

You do not need to spend Sunday cooking all day. Thirty to forty-five calm minutes of preparation will remove the repetitive jobs while preserving the freshness of each dinner.

1

Make a masala head start
Chop 4 onions, mince a bulb of garlic and grate half the ginger. Refrigerate separately in sealed containers for up to three days.

Wash and portion
Rinse the red lentils and basmati rice when needed. Wash spinach and coriander, dry well, and keep wrapped in clean kitchen paper.

3

Batch-cook rice thoughtfully
Cook enough rice for Monday and Tuesday, cool it quickly, refrigerate within one hour and reheat only once until piping hot.

4

Use leftovers on purpose
Chana masala, dahl, mushroom masala and butter bean curry keep for up to three days chilled. Freeze spare portions rather than letting them linger.

5

Keep Friday easy
Blend the mushroom masala onion, ginger and garlic paste on Thursday evening. The curry then comes together quickly.

YOUR EASY COOKING RHYTHM

|----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Before work    | Move frozen portions to the fridge; soak rice if the recipe benefits from it. |
| When you start | Read the recipe once, take out every ingredient, then begin.                  |
| Before serving | Taste for salt, chilli and acidity. Finish with lemon or fresh coriander.     |
| After dinner   | Cool leftovers promptly and label anything going into the freezer.            |

Three more dinners to enjoy

FRIDAY

Mushroom Masala

Earthy mushrooms in a deep Punjabi-style tomato sauce with whole spices.

Time: 40 min

At the table: Jeera rice or naan

SATURDAY

Vegetable Biryani

Fragrant basmati rice and colourful vegetables for a relaxed weekend centrepiece.

Cook with confidence

Indian food rewards attention to the masala: let onions soften, let tomatoes lose their raw edge and bloom ground spices briefly without burning them.

Make the plan your own

Swap the days, repeat a favourite or freeze a portion. A useful meal plan should support real life rather than become another set of rules.
